

Goodbye! (until next year!)

Tonight I'm heading home
I'll see you next year after you have grown.

I had a fun time with you.
I hope you had fun with me too!

Now, I must end my visit.
Santa is having a meeting, and I can't miss it!

Don't be sad, I'll be back.

Next year for a fact!

Tomorrow I hope you wake up to a sight
after you have been snuggled up in bed all night.

Remember to be kind and care

Spread love and share.

See you next December
for more fun and adventure!

Yours Truly,
The Elf on the Shelf
